

The Grauer School participates in international tennis exchange with SES Tennis Center

The Grauer School Gorillas tennis team in Encinitas participated in an International Tennis Exchange with the SES Tennis Center students from Tecate, Mexico, on March 1 at the Rancho Valencia Resort and Spa in Rancho Santa Fe. Players from The Grauer School coed middle school team and the junior varsity high school team competed in a round-robin format against students from the SES Tennis Center from Tecate, who traveled to San Diego to participate under the direction of Rancho Valencia Head Tennis Professional and SES Tennis Center Founder, Eduardo Sanchez. The Grauer School attracts international top athletes with their individualized academic program, access to athletic facilities and outstanding coaches and trainers under the guidance of Athletic Director Justin Armour, a top professional athlete with comprehensive knowledge of fitness.
