

July 30, 2009

Rancho Santa Fe Review

Grauer hosts leaders for update on parliament of the world's religions

The Grauer School, located at 1500 South El Camino Real in Encinitas, hosted the president of the board of trustees of the Council for the Parliament of The World's Religions (CPWR), Dr. William Leshner and Neil Watkins, the Executive Director of Jubilee USA, (a Washington, D.C. based global justice movement to relieve and cancel the debts of the world's poorest nations) at a reception on July 12. Leshner updated Grauer School students and faculty on the upcoming Parliament of the World's Religions, which will take place in Melbourne, Australia, on Dec. 3 to 9, 2009. An estimated 9,000 participants from worldwide religious organizations will gather for dialogue and instruction on a variety of faiths. 25 Grauer School representatives will be attending the event that occurs only every five to seven years.

Dr. Stuart Grauer (Grauer head of school) Neil Watkins (executive director, Jubilee USA), Dr. Bill Leshner (president, Board of Trustees CPWR), Pastor Bill Harman (Grauer Advancement), and Mike Branon (Grauer Board of Trustees).