English Tutoring: Tutoring for a student is organized individually: each student may require some ESL tutoring based upon our admissions process and student need. This will add substantially to your fees—please inquire at our admissions office.

During the application process The Grauer School makes an assessment of each student's needs. The school is able to provide specialized help in English as a Second Language (ESL) and general assistance with studies when needed. Arrangements may vary from full immersion without special help to intensive tutoring several hours a day combined with attendance in some regular classes. Additional fees for extra services are determined when the school has evaluated each student's needs. If and when the student is accepted, he is also advised as to what extra services will be provided and at what cost.

Before you send this:
