

ENCINITAS

Scholarships through the roof

ENCINITAS — Grauer School Center for college preparation recently announced that the 18 students graduating in the class of 2010 were offered a total of $2.2 million in academic scholarships from educational institutions for collegiate studies. These offers equate to $122,222 in unsolicited merit scholarships per student. All Grauer School graduates are accepted to the colleges or universities of their choice. Among those colleges are: University of California at San Diego, University of California at Irvine, Occidental College, Tulane University, Purdue University, Pepperdine University, Embry Riddle, Prescott (Aeronautical), University of Arizona, Marymount College, Cornish College of the Arts, University of Michigan, Ohio State University, Florida Institute of Technology, University of Colorado and University of Illinois. Call 760-944-6777.